Parking

Follow signs for ThoresbyPark / Yellow Event Parking signs.

Blue Badge Parking is located on a separate hard standing site close to the event which leads straight to the event on a paved path.

Stewards/Volunteers will be there to assist you if you have any questions. They will be wearing branded green high-vis vests and have an identifiable yellow lanyard on.

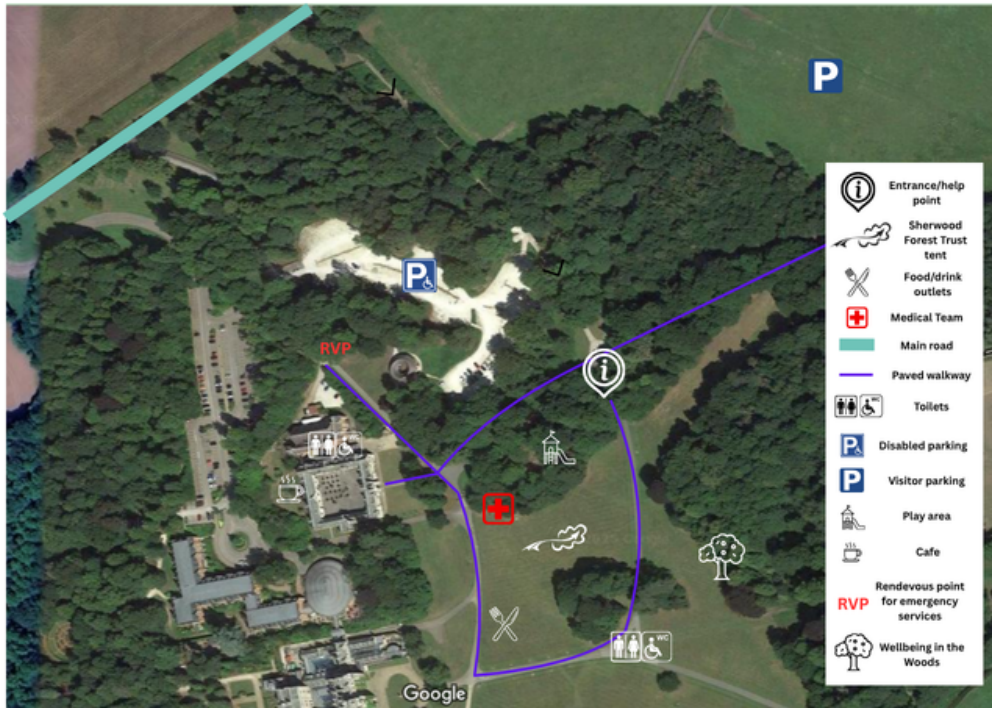

Accessible Routes

From the car park there are flat paved paths all the way to the event field and around the event space in a loop (see map).

The festival is located on a flat grass area but there may be some bumps.

All terrain chairs have been tested on this site. Standard manual chairs may be unsuitable for all areas.

There is no charging facility on site and no electricity on the festival site.

The Site

Our festival site is around the size of a football pitch.

Beyond this is a grass lawn down to a river but no festival events are located on this part of the site.

All events and stalls take place under gazebos, so be aware of guy ropes that could be trip hazards.

There will be clear signage for events and facilities.

Seating

There will be straw bales on the event site to be used as seating.

Thoresby cafe has benches and chairs available.

Please do bring your own camping and picnic chairs, blankets, cushions etc.

Facilities

There will be 8 portaloos and 2 accessible portaloos on the event site.

Thoresby have their own toilets in the courtyard available to use, including a disabled toilet.

Quiet spaces

We don't have a dedicated quiet space but the festival as a whole is non-amplified and in a large open space. There is a well-being area which will be quieter.

Events

Yoga - Abilities can be accommodated for, please talk to Sarah at the Sherwood Forest Trust tent for further advice and assistance, and to sign up for the session.

Foraging walk - Some of the walk will take place on the accessible path, and some sections will be in forest on a woodland path which may have uneven flooring. Samples will be available to try and discuss at Kindful & Wild's tent. All events are free with the exception of Archery, Axe Throwing, Blacksmithing, and the Carousel.

There will be flyers and posters available with the full itinerary.

BSL

The performance of Slugageddon! on both days at 2pm will be BSL interpreted.

Catering

There will be food vans selling pizzas, loaded fries, mac & cheese, and ice cream

There will be a bar on site

You are welcome to bring your own food.

Health & Safety

We have volunteers on site who can assist you with information, directions, and any issues you may have. They will be in green, branded, high viz vests.

Our welcome tent and white Sherwood Forest Trust tent is the main point of contact for help with anything you need.

We will have First Aid and a Security Team on site.

The Thoresby Park Main Office is located in the Courtyard for any emergencies and there will always be someone with a radio to assist.

Photography

Photos are being taken of the festival over the weekend by our own photographer.

A videographer will be filming on the Sunday.

If you prefer not to be photographed, please notify us on arrival at the welcome tent and we will give you a non identifiable badge so that our photographers will know not to include you in any shots.
